

Teen Board Guidelines Commitment

Purpose:

- To give our youth an avenue to share their voice to the ERLTC Board of Directors.
- To give our youth the opportunity to meet and create a bond with other youth from participating churches.
- To brainstorm ways to bring the youth of our Lord's church together creating stronger bonds in love for each other.
- To learn to take more responsibility and act in their own spiritual growth.
- To develop relationships with Christians and learning to work together for a common goal of growing each other spiritually.

Requirements:

- Teen must be in the 11th or 12th grade.
- Each church participating in ERLTC may have two (2) teens (no gender restriction).
- Teens are chosen for the upcoming year's Convention immediately after the current year's Convention is completed.
- Teens are chosen by the Church Coordinator of each church currently participating in ERLTC. All exceptions may be decided by the Church Coordinator subject to the needs of their church group. All exceptions must be approved by the Board of Directors in advance.
- A teen will serve on the Teen Board for one year. A teen may serve more years if re-chosen by their church each year.
- A teen must be actively participating in ERLTC for their church during the current ERLTC year. They must participate at the Convention in at least one Individual Event (Bible Reading, Signing, Song Leading, Speech) plus one Group Event (Bible Bowl, Chorus, Drama, Puppets).
- Teens are encouraged to attend the Teen Board meeting before the Convention, as scheduled by the Board of Directors. While attending the Teen Board meeting is encouraged, it is not required; the Teen Board leadership is chosen at this meeting. Teens are required to attend all meetings at the Convention; starting on Friday morning of the Convention.
- A teen understands that their participation on the Teen Board will require active responsibilities before, during and after the Convention to be determined by the Board of Directors.
- Teens will adhere to rules as established and outlined by the Board of Directors.
- Teens must be willing to follow the directions given by the Board of Directors.
- Teens must also be willing to sign a Commitment Form and a Behavior Agreement.
